Kathleen Morris, MS, CCC/SLP

Kathleen Morris, MS, CCC/SLP holds a Master's degree in Speech-Language Pathology, and has been recognized for the following achievements.

- ✓ Has been a Speech-Language Pathologist for over 30 years.
- ✓ Established the first sensory integration clinic in Dallas, TX in 1990. In 2000, Kathleen expanded her private practice with a second clinic, both offering OT, PT, ST and Cranial-Sacral therapies.
- ✓ Founded the Pediatric Network Foundation in 1998 establishing a preschool for children with sensory issues.
- ✓ Created Sensory Integration Focus Magazine in 2004 to reach more people regarding sensory integration. It is now read in 17 countries.
- ✓ Has presented over 200 workshops at local, regional, national and international conferences.
- ✓ Initiated the annual National Sensory Awareness campaign in 2005 which gained support across the US and Canada with over 250 volunteers.
- ✓ Since 1998 Kathleen has volunteered in the Children's Hospital in St. Petersburg, Russia, along with numerous orphanages near Moscow. She has presented training for caregivers, physicians and therapists regarding sensory issues. That work has led to doing the same in Romania and Bulgaria.
- ✓ Speaking to adoptive families, before and after adoption, is another one of Kathleen's passions.
