

Cris Rowan...

a well-known speaker and author to teachers, parents and professionals throughout British Columbia and Alberta in the field of Sensory Integration, Learning, Attention, Fine Motor Development and the impact of TV and videogames on children's neurobiological development. Cris has presented four consecutive years at both British Columbia and Alberta's Special Education Conferences. Cris has a BSc's both in Occupational Therapy and in Biology and is a Paediatric Sensory Specialist. She is certified in Sensory Integration and is an approved therapist with Autism Community Training. Over the past decade, Cris has been specializing in Paediatric Rehabilitation, working with children, parents and teachers on the Sunshine Coast in British Columbia. Cris also chairs the BCSOT Paediatric and Sensory Integration

Special Interest Groups, has written numerous articles for international journals, and is in the process of completing her first book.